US announces sanctions on Russian officials, businesses for Navalny's poisoning

The Biden administration announced sanctions against Russia over the poisoning and jailing of opposition leader Alexey Navalny. The penalties -like those adopted by the European Union -- target senior Russian law enforcement officials, as well as matching sanctions the EU and the UK imposed earlier on other Russians allied with President Vladimir Putin as punishment for the attempted murder of Navalny.

The sanctions are the first ordered by President Joe Biden against Russia and will help set the tone for his relations with Putin. The ruble recovered sharply after the news, reversing earlier losses as investors were encouraged by the sanctions' relatively narrow scope.

The US demands the release of Navalny, his allies and others wrongfully detained in Russia and an end to the persecution of his supporters, one senior administration official told reporters in a briefing.

Viktor Zolotov, the head of Russia's National Guard; Igor Krasnov, the country's prosecutor general; Alexander Kalashnikov, the Penitentiary Federal Service chief: and Alexander Bastrykin, who the leads country's Investigative Committee, are the targets of the EU's latest penalties, according to three people familiar with that decision. The 27 EU member states formally adopted the sanctions on Tuesday, according to two officials familiar with the decision. The measures will be published in the afternoon, one of the people said.

The US measures will involve the State, Treasury and Commerce Departments, a senior administration official said in the briefing.

Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov said Russia would "definitely respond" to the new restrictions, though he didn't elaborate.

The sanctions are the first ordered by President Joe Biden against Russia and will help set the tone for his relations with Putin.

The targets of EU and UK asset freezes and travel bans in October were Aleksandr Bortnikov. leader of Russia's domestic agency; Sergei spy Kiriyenko, first deputy chief of staff in the presiadministration; dential Andrei Yarin, head of the presidential administration's domestic policy directorate; Aleksei Krivoruchko and Pavel

Popov, two deputy ministers of defense; and Sergei Menyaylo, Putin's envoy to Siberian Federal the District.

The bloc and the UK also froze the assets of one Russian entity: the State Scientific Research Institute for Organic Chemistry and Technology. Navalny returned to Russia in January after being treated in Germany for a nerve agent attack. He was detained shortly after landing at Moscow's Sheremetyevo airport. Western governments and Navalny have accused the Kremlin of being behind the attempted assassination. Russia denies that and has said that Navalny's imprisonment is an internal matter. Last month, Biden called for Navalny's release, saying he was "targeted for exposing corruption and should be released immediately and without condition." Since then, Navalny has been sentenced and begun serving a two-and-a-halfyear term.

Calls for Andrew Cuomo's resignation mount as third accuser emerges

New York : Calls for New York Gov. Andrew Cuomo's resignation intensified late Monday after a third woman accused him of offensive behavior, saying he'd touched her face and back and asked to kiss her moments after they met at a wedding reception.

Anna Ruch told late Monday that she removed the Democratic governor's hand from her back, but he said she seemed "aggressive," promptly put his hands on her face and asked if he could kiss her. "I was so confused and shocked and embarrassed," Ruch, now 33, told the Times, which published a photo of the encounter showing the governor's hands on her face. "I turned my head away and didn't have words in that moment." An email seeking comment was sent to Ruch's photography business. Her social media accounts were private. An email was also sent to Cuomo's administration for comment.

It's quite a tumble for Cuomo, who had been widely celebrated for his leadership during the pandemic, particularly the daily news conferences where he sought to inform and reassur the public with charts, graphs and a machismo he dubbed "New York tough.'

The account from Ruch. who worked as a photographer at the White House during President Barack Obama's second term, made her the second woman to accuse Cuomo of touching her without permission, and fueled broader calls for Cuomo to step down, including from some in his own party. "The pattern of sexual harassment and predatory behavior by Governor Cuomo is unacceptable, and I believe the women coming forward," New York City Councilman Antonio Reynoso tweeted in comments echoed else-

"Governor Cuomo where. must resign." The latest accusation follows sexual allegations harassment against the governor from two women who had worked for his administration, accounts that led New York's independently elected attorney general to say she was moving ahead with an investigation of his conduct. Attorney General Letitia James received a letter Monday from Cuomo's office authorizing her to take charge of the probe after a weekend of wrangling over who should investigate.

Sri Lanka Reverses Course, Offers Strategic Deep-Sea Port To India, Japan

Colombo: Sri Lanka will offer a strategically located deep-sea port to India and Japan, an official said Tuesday, as the island seeks to balance traditional ties against China's rising regional influence.

The government last month abruptly pulled out of an agreement with Delhi and Tokyo to jointly develop the partially built East Container Terminal, located next to a $500-million Chinese-run container jetty within the capital Colombo's sprawling port. But Colombo reversed course Tuesday, offering the West Container Terminal (WCT), which is yet to be built and located on the other side of the Chineserun jetty known as the Colombo International Container Terminal (CICT). "The discussions to develop Delhi will divide their instead of foreign develop-

Two Chinese submarines berthed at the CICT -- which started operations in 2013 -in 2014, sparking concerns in India.

Since then, Sri Lanka has refused permission for further submarine calls.

In December 2017, unable to repay a huge Chinese loan, Sri Lanka allowed China Merchants Port Holdings to take over the southern Hambantota port, which straddles the world's busiest east-west shipping route.

Saudi envoy disputes crown prince role in Khashoggi killing United Nations: Saudi sonal protective team

US wasted billions on cars, buildings in Afghanistan billion went to pay for buildings and vehicles that were used as intended

States wasted billions of dollars in war-torn Afghanistan on buildings and vehicles that were either abandoned or destroyed, according to a report released Monday by a US government watchdog. The agency said it reviewed USD 7.8 billion spent since 2008 on buildings and vehicles. Only USD 343.2 million worth of buildings and vehicles ?were maintained in good condition,? said the Special Inspector General for Afghanistan Reconstruction, or SIGAR, which oversees American taxpayer money spent on the protracted conflict. The report said that just USD 1.2 billion of the USD 7.8 billion been holding on-againwent to pay for buildings and vehicles that were used as intended. The fact that so many cap-

Islamabad: The United ital assets wound up not used, deteriorated or abandoned should have been a major cause of concern for the agencies financing these projects," John F. Sopko, the special inspector general, said in his report. The U.S. public is weary of the nearly 20year-old war and President Joe Biden is reviewing a peace deal his predecessor, Donald Trump, signed with the Taliban a year ago. He must decide whether to withdraw all troops by May 1, as promised in the deal, or stay and possibly prolong the war. Officials say no decision has been made. Meanwhile, Taliban insurgents and the Afghan government have off-again talks in the Gulf Arab state of Qatar but a deal that could bring peace to Afghanistan after 40 years of relentless war seems far off. Analyst Bill Roggio of the Long War Journal said the findings by SIGAR are not surprising.

The reasons for the financial losses include Taliban attacks, corruption and ?throwing money at the problem without considering the implications,? he said. It is one thing to build a clinic and school, it is another to operate, maintain, and in many cases defend this infrastructure from Taliban attacks,? said Roggio. "Additionally, the West has wildly underestimated the impact of Afghan corruption and in many cases incompetence. It was always a recipe for failure.? U.S. agencies responsible for construction didn't even ask the Afghans if they wanted or needed the buildings they ordered built, or if they had the technical ability to keep them running, Sopko said in his report. The waste occurred in violation of multiple laws stating that U.S. agencies should not construct or procure capital assets until they can show that the benefiting country has the financial and technical resources and capability to use and maintain those assets effectively, he said.
